

CONTEST OF COTTONS

World's Most Notable Achievement in Textile Retailing

A vivid, inspirational demonstration of the universality of Cotton—its wide scope of uses in the field of fashion and in the home. The first dress, we are told, was the leaves of the fig tree. Later the skins of wild beasts were utilized as apparel, bedding and coverings for the floor, wall and couch.

Today, however, Cotton is King—so crowned both by fashion and by the housewife. This sun-kissed, filmy, frothy fiber of the field becomes transformed by the ingenuity of man into apparel for outer adornment and bodily comfort. From Cotton—hats are made—and shoes. Not only can we completely clothe the person, but in the home its manifold uses make Cotton indispensable. It yields a full measure of service in the kitchen. In every room it finds a place above serious challenge.

With the hearty co-operation of many manufacturers we inaugurate tomorrow a CONTEST OF COTTONS—a series of illuminating demonstrations of the vast variety in which cottons nowadays greets you and of the superior values abundantly provided.

Here will be found an illimitable array of Cottons in almost every form from the plainest fabric to the most superbly sumptuous gown—practically the entire range of cotton piece goods and manufactures being covered by this unparalleled event. Beyond the dominating excellence of the varieties and qualities stand even higher and more pronounced the unrivaled values. Comparison with all contemporaneous and past achievements will prove conclusively the fact that
